What are Shalom Singers sharing? Shalom Singers are currently producing three gospel music videos that will be streamed at the 2012 United Methodist General Conference. Video production begins February 25. They have also recorded a new album. Proceeds will support their production expenses as they share their messages of God's love, power and presence.

What are Peace Pals planning? Peace Pals was recently described as "a mix of Vacation Bible School, Kid's Club, and Sunday School that includes a peace and justice component, in addition to nutrition, manners, and leadership development... all for children preschool through middle school." They need ongoing support for program supplies, local leaders, and snacks.
